

5. Again, work as a class to order each material.

Reflections:

- Ask students: Are you surprised by the changes in the masses of each material after filtering the water?
- Why did the mass of most materials go up?
- What do you think the final mass of each material tells us about how much water it holds?

Assessment:

Assess the class discussion.